Welcome to Hieronymus Seafood Restaurant & Oyster Bar. The experience that you will have is uniquely Wilmington, North Carolina.

When you walk through our doors, take a look around. You will see many items that are a part of our history. The shells inside the table have been brought to us by many guests throughout the years. Name plates on the bar designate locals that have told many a tale. News releases show Marlene Hieronymus cooking for Bryant Gumble on the Today Show. Make sure to check out the murals painted by local artists and take a gander at some of the "stars" that have dropped by for dinner.

The Oyster Bar is a local kind of place no matter where you call home. Are you on the wall? There are always shellfish in the steamer. If it's cold outside, the fireplace will be lit and we are always serving cold drinks. This year we are excited to offer you your choice of NC beers from our 4 rotating taps.

All of this began in 1972, when Glenn Hieronymus bought a commercial fishing boat. From the oceans he and his brothers harvested a bounty of grouper, flounder, mahi-mahi, scallops, black sea bass, snapper, cobia, tuna, and shrimp. From the marshes they pulled oysters and clams.

In 1980, Hieronymus Seafood Restaurant & Oyster Bar opened on Market Street. Friends and neighbors thought that Glenn may have spent just a little too much time in the sun. Nobody would travel so far out of town to eat dinner. Southern Living Magazine found us. It just doesn't get any better than fresh seafood, fresh vegetables and helpful service.

Enough about our 49 plus years of history. Sit back and relax. You are in a Wilmington restaurant where you will be eating seafood from such exotic locations as Hampstead, Stump Sound, Sneads Ferry, Topsail Island, and Motts Channel at Wrightsville Beach. The vegetables come from local growers, and our own family farm. You just cannot get a fresher Mojito anywhere and you will be served by people from all over the country that now call Wilmington home. Our corporate offices are in the corner, and if you would like to see the owner, just tell your server. Thank you for joining us. It is a pleasure serving you and your family.
